Isojiman Premium Sake Brewing Company
Shizuoka, Japan

Isojiman Shuzo was established in Yaizu City, Shizuoka Prefecture in 1830 (Tenpo Era, First year).
Like many sake breweries established in Edo Period, the owner of Isojiman Shuzo was a major landowner in Yaizu, and possibly the village headman.Isojiman is born from the harmony between carefully selected sake rice, excellent water (soft water) from the South Alps in Japan, and the brewers. It is Isojimans' sincerest desire that all of our products convey the "Isojiman" image when enjoyed by customers. It is the fusion of tradition and leading technology, and the path from innovation to reality. Isojiman are constantly involved in heartfelt sake brewing by "putting forth a little more effort," in order to provide customers with even better products.

Featured Brewery :
Takagi Shuzo, "Juyondai"
Yamagata, Japan

The Takagi Shuzo one of the most influential sake breweries in the world. In 1993 fifteenth generation owner Akitsuna Takagi took over the brewery at the age of 21 when he was still a student, learning the art of brewing on the job and Takagi set out to make a distinctive sake, one that fruit forward and vibrant as opposed to the light and dry style that was popular at the time. The resulting brand was Juyondai, literally "fourteenth generation" in honor of Takagi's father calling attention to the long lineage of the family.

		720ml	1.8L
200105	Junmai Daginjo, Nakadori Chogoku The rice has been polished at 35 degrees, exudes fruity aromas like melon and banana.The sweetness spreads in the mouth, and the soft and savory style presents a refreshing and clean taste, while the bitterness in the second half gradually hits but quickly dissipates. The overall taste is slightly sweet , without any miscellaneous taste, and full of clarity.		2,150
200112	Daiginjo, Yamadanishiki Nakadori Elegant and aromatic, with notes of ripe melon, white peach, and jasmine. Silky, refined texture with a clean, lingering finish. A benchmark in ultra-premium sake.	1,094
200111	Junmai Daiginjo, Bessen Banshu Yamadanishiki "Bessen" is a signature expression of Takagi Shuzo's elegant yet expressive style. It opens with a strikingly pure aroma of melon, green apple, and white florals, underpinned by a subtle hint of steamed rice and fresh herbs. The palate is smooth and rounded, delivering juicy orchard fruit layered with gentle umami and a graceful sweetness that feels both polished and natural.	1,094
200091	Junmai Daiginjo, "Soko" This ulta rare Namazume sake is obtained using the Shichitare Nijukkkan method, which refers to only obtaining the finest sake (figuratively 7 drops) from 75kg of rice, a method unique to Juyondai. It shows a similar smooth and silky texture like that of Ryusen but lighter more delicious . Aftertaste is super clean, pure and melting with a subtle hints of mild spice.	2,344
200090	Junmai Daiginjo, "Ryugetsu" Ryugetsu is a limited sake, brewed from Yamada Nishiki rice and Aiyama rice. The rice polishing ratio is 40%. Hailed at the 2016 Sake Competition as being one of the best in show in the very competitive Junmai Daiginjo category. Made by gathering the essence of cold dripped sake over an extended period of time, for glitz and glamour in the world of Sake.		6,888
200088	Junmai Daiginjo, "Ryusen" This Sake is the top brew from Takagi Shuzo. It is a Shizuku Drip Sake, made using the highest grade Yamadanishiki, polished to 35% and brewed using ultra low temperature method. It has prominent and aromatic floral fragrances, complex & rich flavours.	9,888

Kokuryu Shuzo

Fukui, Japan

"If we make good sake, people will support it." That's been our motto since Kokuryu was founded in 1804. in the mountains of Fukui. It's an ancient land, nestled between snowy peaks and the Sea of Japan, not far from the main Soto Zen temple Eihei-ji. From a long tradition of sake brewing, Kokuryu today stands as one of the region's few survivors. We grow our own rice. We seek out special yeasts. And we strive for the best in brewing and maturation, hand-crafting only the highest-caliber sakes in small batches.

		720ml
200001	Kokuryu, "Jungin" Junmai Ginjo, Gohyakumangoku, Fukui, +3 A sake that expresses the natural flavor of select Gohyakumangoku rice from Fukui. The harmony of taste and fragrance creates a depth of flavor rich, dynamic and mysterious.	165
220001	Kokuryu, "Ryu" A breakthrough sake, Ryu was the first to bring French wine maturation techniques to sake-brewing and the first Daiginjo released nationwide. Well-rounded, gently aromatic and surprisingly incisive.	325
220012	Daiginjo, "Shizuku" Daiginjo, Yamada Nishiki, Fukui, N/A An elegant daiginjo named after the fresh, clear liquid collected drop by drop from cotton bags filled with moromi, or sake mash. Its clean and beautiful flavor will remind you of the coldest day in winter.	450
210009	Junmai Daiginjo, "Ishidaya" Junmai Daiginjo, Yamada Nishiki, Fukui, N/A Years of gentle maturation at low temperatures bring this Junmai Daiginjo to unparalleled mellowness and fullness of flavor. You'd expect nothing less from a sake that bears Kokuryu's original name.	1,988
210007	Junmai Daiginjo, "Nizaemon" Junmai Daiginjo, Yamada Nishiki, Fukui, N/A Named after Kokuryu's founder, Nizaemon uses every precious drop from the moromi, collected in 18-liter tobin bottles and matured using Kokuryu's original method. The result is a sake with rich and elegant flavor.	1,988

Shinjiro Torii was born in the Meiji Period, when Western culture and civilization suddenly flowed into Japan. In 1923, Mr. Shinjiro envisioned a whisky filled with the essence of Japanese nature and hand-crafted by artisans through a patient process of enhancing the work of nature. Though initially inspired by traditional Scottish whisky, Torii envisioned a Japanese approach by choosing a terrain and climate completely different from those of Scotland. Torii chose the region of Yamazaki, on the outskirts of Kyoto as the birthplace of Japanese Whisky.
